

23rd April Happy Book Day

The teacher – student relationship is the most precious ornament of any culture because it touches the future. Books are the source, which makes this relationship stronger, shape our minds & mould our characters.